Dear Mr TAN,

Promotion of the Constitution, the Basic Law and the Hong Kong National Security Law

On behalf of the Industrial, Commercial and Professional Sectors Sub-group (ICPSG) of the Working Group on Constitution, Basic Law and Hong Kong National Security Law under the Constitution and Basic Law Promotion Steering Committee (CBLPSC), I would like to encourage your organisation to actively organise publicity and educational activities for promoting the Constitution, the Basic Law and the Hong Kong National Security Law ("the three laws") through your member network.

Background of the CBLPSC and ICPSG

The Government has all along attached great importance to the promotion and education on the Constitution, the Basic Law and national security. The CBLPSC, established by the Government, has been providing steer on the overall strategy for promoting the Constitution and the Basic Law, and co-ordinating the promotional and educational efforts of various concerned parties both in the Government and in the community. The CBLPSC and its five sub-groups, namely the Local Community Sub-group, Teachers and Students Sub-group, Civil Servants Sub-group, Community Outside Hong Kong Sub-group, and ICPSG, have been organising different kinds of activities to actively promote the Constitution, the Basic Law and national security to relevant sectors.

The ICPSG formulates and implements relevant promotion plans among the industrial, commercial and professional sectors, with the Trade and Industry Department serving as the Secretariat. The ICPSG promotes "the three laws" to the trade through different activities, including production of promotional videos for broadcast in venues/events frequently visited by the trade and on social media platforms, participation in exhibitions as well as publication of relevant articles and Q&As and a booklet titled "The Industrial, Commercial and Professional Sectors and National Security" for dissemination to the trade through various industrial and trade organisations' member network, etc.. For more details about the ICPSG, please visit http://www.tid.gov.hk/icpsg/en.

Encouraging your organisation to organise relevant activities

The Constitution and the Basic Law together form the constitutional basis and order of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR), providing a solid legal basis and constitutional framework for our country's basic policies on the HKSAR, including "One Country, Two Systems", while at the same time providing the strongest safeguard for the long-term prosperity and stability of Hong Kong.

The ICPSG encourages your organisation to actively organise publicity and educational activities for promoting "the three laws" through your member network (such as organising seminars, relaying information about "the three laws" in your newsletters, showing the promotional video on "the three laws" <www.youtube.com/watch?v=ujmSOeQmL_Q> at suitable events, etc.), so as to deepen your members' understanding of "the three laws". We count on your organisation's efforts and support to enhance promotion to the industrial, commercial and professional sectors in Hong Kong.

If your organisation has organised or has any plan to organise publicity and educational activities for promoting "the three laws" in 2026 and 2027, you are welcome to share with us the details (such as the date, event name, organising/coordinating party, etc.) for our reference. You may provide the information to the Secretariat of the ICPSG via email (ma3_reg@tid.gov.hk). For any enquiries, please feel free to contact Mr Nate CHAN (email: natechan@tid.gov.hk; tel. no.: 2398 5606) or Ms Ivy SI (email: ivysi@tid.gov.hk; tel. no.: 2398 5529) of the Secretariat of the ICPSG. Thank you.

I wish your organisation every success.
